Intermission application form (Coursework only)

This form is not to be used by Monash College Students

Intermission (Coursework students)
If you are currently enrolled in a course at Monash you may wish to apply to take a period of leave from your enrolled course.

Intermission is normally granted for a period of no more than one calendar year or two consecutive semesters. If you wish to extend your intermission, you must re-apply and your faculty will determine whether an extension is possible. For information on the time limit for completion of your course and the maximum intermission period permitted, please refer to the student resource guide.

If you are approved for intermission, you will be notified in writing by your faculty within approximately 3 weeks.

Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery must contact the administrative officer (Medicine) on 9905 4309 if they intend to intermit. Approval will not be granted until the Medicine intermission procedure is complete. Please note intermission in these cases is not automatically granted.

For further information about the financial and academic implications of intermission please refer to the Student Resources Guide:

International Students (on campus only)
International students who apply for intermission are required to first consult with International Student Support Unit as the ESOS Act (2000) specifies that intermission will only be approved on exceptional compassionate grounds, e.g. illness or severe personal circumstances. Financial problems do not constitute compassionate grounds.

You should provide original or certified copies of medical certificates, death certification or supporting documentation from a registered psychologist, or other registered bodies. All documents must be provided in English.

When circumstances aside from the above arise and you are required to withdraw from your course, the faculty may offer guaranteed re-admission to the course. This guarantee will specify a period and take account of the imposition of any exclusion periods imposed by DIMA.

Monash University must report any period of intermission sought from your course to DIMA.

Legislation relating to international student visas states that when on intermission you must to return to your home country within four weeks of the intermission being granted. You may be required to provide additional information as part of the approval process.

To avoid any administrative delays please ensure you have the relevant supporting documentation with you when seeking advice from International Student Support Unit and ensure to submit any relevant documents with your application.

Fees
In order to receive a refund of fees, you must submit the intermission application before the census date for units of study specified in each semester.
