Monash University offers a comprehensive Postgraduate Program in Transport and Traffic with all units available by Off-Campus Learning (distance education). The program offers the opportunity to undertake an individual unit or to complete a range of postgraduate qualifications:

- Graduate Certificate in Transport and Traffic
- Postgraduate Diploma in Transport and Traffic
- Master of Traffic
- Master of Transport

A $100 refund is available to participants from this workshop (Planning Public Transport Services (25-26 October 2005) who successfully complete the ‘Transport Planning and Policy’ unit in the Off-Campus Learning Postgraduate Program in Transport and Traffic. An outline of the unit is attached. To obtain the refund you need to obtain a passing grade in ‘Transport Planning and Policy’ in 2006 and then return the slip below for your $100 refund.

The postgraduate program is described in the attached brochure and full details can be obtained from our web site:
